Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Samminiattelli, U. S. Patent 1,687,391.
3. Samminiattelli teaches a display apparatus comprising stationary frame 16, housing 20, and rotation illuminated sections 21. Inside the housing Samminiattelli teaches a fixed motor, a rotating shaft 13 mounted to bearings 14. The rotatable shaft further comprises slip rings 23 and 24 engaged with bushes 27 and 24, wherein the bushes are fixedly mounted to the motor to provide rotational power to the shaft.
4. Since the applicant does not define “a plane of the rotatable section”, the examiner contends that the axis lies a plane of the rotatable section.
5. With respect to claim 2, Samminiattelli teaches slip ring device 23, 24, and 27 to provide rotational power to the illuminated section 21.

With respect to claim 3, the outer section 27 of the slip-ring are attached to the fixed section 16 and power supply 26 and an inner section 23 is affixed to the rotatable section 23 and moving therewith.

With respect to claim 5, the switch S of wiring seen in figure 5 corresponds to electronic controller.

With respect to claim 6, Samminiatielli teaches a motor M for rotation of the rotatable section.

With respect to claim 7, Samminiatielli teaches the power supply comprising a battery.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 8-11, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Samminiatielli in view of Schöniger et al., U. S. Patent 4,903,172.

Schöniger teaches solar powered illuminated sign comprising a solar cell 17, a chargeable battery 19, and charging device 20, wherein the lights are powered by the solar cell during daylight. When the ambient illumination drops below a predetermined brightness the solar cell switch turns on the lights now powered by the batteries.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed January 6, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
9. The applicant argues Samminiatielli does not disclose a rotatable section whose rotatable axis is in the plane of the rotatable section.
10. Since the applicant does not define "a plane of the rotatable section", the examiner contends that the axis of rotation lies in "a plane" of the rotatable section.
11. The rejection is maintained.
